LIQUOR LICENSE

The state senate finance committee has raised l'quir licenser. In fact the committee ta: made its calculations to add one hundred and thirty thousard dollars annually to the states, treasury from the one sturce of I quor. The committee has played no favorites in its attitude towards the liquor interesis, unless it be that the "mail establishments have been bit harder than others.

Incidentally it may be remarked that the very remote prospect of a statewide vote on probibition by legislative action has been dealt a steggering blow by the committee in its unanimous action in ordering a favorable report on the bill to "raise revenue for the sop port of the government" which made the following schedule for the ensuing
